This copy wanting the last leaf should be preserved with my other copy, which is perfect, on account of the curious variations in sheet H which, in this one, was evidently corrected after the other was struck off. This at sig. H. 1, line 5 from bottom, the arrangement of the line, "Here it good," is corrected, and at sig. H. 4, verso, line 4, where every other copy of this edition reads, - "He came but to the Duke of Lancaster."
